

A local success story

FIM Capital Limited originally commenced business in 2006 as IOMA Fund and Investment Management Limited, and in August 2015, the Company changed its name to FIM Capital Limited (“FIM Capital”).

Led by two of its founding directors, Philip Scales and Russell Collister, FIM Capital provides specialist investment management and fund administration services to a range of private and institutional clients.

The fund administration business offers the full range of outsourced services to a variety of closed ended funds and collective investment schemes. Many of the closed ended schemes are quoted on the London Stock Exchange.

The investment management business focuses on managing discretionary and advisory portfolios for private clients, institutions, trusts and corporations.

Based on the Isle of Man, FIM Capital is an independent company, regulated by the Isle of Man Financial Services Authority and the UK Financial Conduct Authority.

Once considered a well-kept secret FIM Capital's burgeoning success has become difficult to ignore as it now boasts some 33 staff, over US$ 4 billion of assets under management and administration, and is a leading player in the local investment and fund administration community.
